HORSE SHOW TO OPEN WITH SIXTEEN EVENTS &

Many Thoroughbreds Arrive, Among Them Being Those of J. L. Bushnell, of Springfield, Ohio.

Sixteen events will compose the opening-day program of the National Capital Horse Show, which begins Saturday, it was announced last night by Manager Melvin C. Hazen. The program has been arranged so that the various classes of thoroughbreds will be represented on the opening day, and some of the most famous horses on the grounds will be seen in action on the tan bark. There will be a class for stallions, chargers, will be a class for stallions, chargers, roadsters and phaeton horses, while even the spectacular Corinthian class will have a place on the program.

The show will start promptly at o'clock and should end at 5:50 o'clock. There were numerous arrivals of thoroughbreds at the show grounds. Fighteenth and D streets, yesterday. John I. (2nd, 3rd and 4th Floors of Lincoln National Bank Building)

Takes Us Out of the High Rent District Without Taking Us Out of the Shopping Center Saving Our Customers Thousands of Dollars

There is no other shoe store like EVERYBODY'S. It undersells all other shoe stores on quality footwear-because (first), EVERYBODY'S buys the overstock of the country's largest manufacturers of high-grade shoes; (second), EVERYBODY'S has a location, although in the heart of the shopping center, just one floor above the "high rent district" - a location even more economical than if it was a mile or more away.

Here's Everybody's First Demonstration Sale

Extra effort put all along the line—a little closer buying from the manufacturers—a still further reduction on our unusually small margin of doing business—and all done TO GIVE YOU THE BEST FOOTWEAR AT THE LOWEST PRICES YOU EVER PAID.
